

IN RECOGNITION OF THE ST.
FRANCIS DESALES HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS LACROSSE TEAM

HON. PATRICK J. TIBERI

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 6, 2016

Mr. TIBERI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize St. Francis DeSales High School for winning the Division II Ohio High School Girls Lacrosse State Championship.

An achievement such as this certainly deserves recognition. The Ohio High School Athletic Association has enabled talented teams and individuals to earn state titles since its founding in 1907. Throughout this time, the champions of OHSAA state level competitions have represented the highest achieving and most talented athletes in Ohio. Each year these elite competitors join the ranks of those who embody Ohio's proud history of athletic success.

DeSales' victory caps a tremendous season. This sort of achievement is earned only through many hours of practice, perspiration and hard work. They have set a new standard for future athletes to reach. Everyone at St. Francis DeSales High School can be extremely proud of their performance.

On behalf of the citizens of Ohio's 12th Congressional District, I congratulate the St. Francis DeSales High School Girls Lacrosse Team on their state championship. I wish their team continued success in their future athletic endeavors.

IN MEMORY OF THE SLAIN AFTER THE ONE-YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF THE MOTHER EMANUEL AME CHURCH MASSACRE

HON. MARK SANFORD

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Wednesday, July 6, 2016

Mr. SANFORD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in memory of the nine men and women who were murdered in my district at the Mother Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, South Carolina on June 17, 2015.

With it now being just over a year since the tragedy occurred, our thoughts and prayers continue to go out to the victims and their families. Their names once again are Cynthia Graham Hurd, Susie Jackson, Ethel Lance, The Reverend DePayne Middleton-Doctor, The Reverend Clementa C. Pinckney, Tywanza Sanders, The Reverend Daniel Simmons Sr., The Reverend Sharonda Coleman-Singleton, and Myra Thompson.

I submit this poem penned in their honor by Albert Carey Caswell.

IN THE DARKEST OF ALL NIGHTS

In the darkest of all nights
When all hope seems to taken flight While, such heartache begins, so ignites
As evil has its day Only then can faith upon us shine its bright light
As from out of these the darkest of all nights
To so fight the good fight Of Good vs. Evil, for we are all God's chosen people to wipe out this blight And when it all seems without reason or rhyme, all in hatred darkest of times Seasons

Remember it is not by chance, for this battle has always raged since the beginning of man For there is darkness, and there is Light
We choose the side upon which we wish to so fight

Let us enjoin now as Black and as White As American's first, colorblind to hatred's sight
For we all have the same heart For we are all are born to live and to die, and to play our part As all of those Mothers who now stand with tears in their eyes and broken hearts
But remember my friends, over The Darkness of Evil we all can so fend Because The Darkness is no match for The Light,

if together we enjoin in this fight If we ask our Lord for the strength for this battle to win

In this most unspeakable of all crimes in our Lord's house in this sin

As they knelt down to pray, as around a total stranger their arms they had laid

To commune and speak of our Lord, as together they prayed As those nine future Angels were so soon to be on heaven's way

As they did not realize before them what Evil so lay

But remember my friends,
the face of evil can so easily be hidden away In these The darkest of all nights, darkest of all days

As nine beautiful souls of gold, were taken from all of us this day From our world in evil's blight as they prayed

As our world has been cheated of The Light that they gave

As nine families across South Carolina so weep on this day

And hate is hard, and oh how upon me it so weighs When, I see all those tears in your families faces

As we now so weep all in what their beautiful lives were to keep But through all of this darkness we all must somehow be brave
And if we look closely, we can still see their light through all of that pain

As all across Charleston on this night but comes a gentle rain

Washing down upon their loved ones to so ease their pain

for these are the tears of our Lord, upon them to remain

Until, up in Heaven you all meet again, and you won't have to cry no more Take heart my brothers and sisters, all of your loved ones in Heaven remain as Angels the same

And you will hear them on the wind
And when you awake, you will feel them next to you where they've been

For they are Angels now in the Army of our Lord

To watch over you time and again To fight this war which has always been Now, let us find rest

Let, us find peace Let us be as strong as once had all these all in their beliefs

Let us not us find the same such dark hatred which evil so keeps

As united together we stand, let us put arms around each other women, child, and man

Black or White, let us not follow the hatred's same disease
As it's time to bring all of our love and light to fight The Beast And from a distance what seems like the worst

Perhaps isn't, for up in Heaven we all wish to wake As its down here on Earth, in the darkest of all nights we must fight evil curse

Goodness. Evil. Darkness. Light.
Those braves hearts who Evil must fight Who bring their Light
As together enjoined, as we battle on into the darkest of all nights And its in our faith this day which will help us move on

For Evil and Darkness are no match for The Light

In these the darkest all nights
Amen!

HONORING HOWARD L. CHAMBERS, LEGENDARY LAKEWOOD CITY MANAGER

HON. ALAN S. LOWENTHAL

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 6, 2016

Mr. LOWENTHAL. Mr. Speaker, Howard L. Chambers, who has served as the city manager of the City of Lakewood for four decades, is the California city manager with the longest tenure in the same city—this in a profession where the average length of service in California is about seven years.

A lifelong member of the Lakewood community, Howard grew up near Mayfair Park, went to neighborhood schools, and worked at the YMCA.

After earning his degree at Cal State Long Beach, Howard interned at the City of Lakewood for two years, handling youth services. He then went to work with the City of Rosemead as an assistant city manager.

Howard returned to Lakewood in 1972 in the role of an executive assistant to the city manager. In 1976, he was named acting city administrator and shortly thereafter hired to permanently fill the position, which was later re-titled as city manager, by the city council.

During his 40-year tenure as a city manager, Howard Chambers has become a respected leader among area city managers, always willing to take the time to share his professional experience with his colleagues on issues affecting Southern California, its residents, and its infrastructure.

Howard has also worked tirelessly and effectively on ad hoc committees and coalitions to address federal, state, and local issues, and has never shied away from a principled battle. As a long-term member of the International City/County Management Association (ICMA), Chairman of the Southeast Los Angeles County Municipal Management Group, the California Contract Cities Association, and a member of the League of California Cities' City Managers Division, Howard has worked with elected and appointed city officials, legislators, regulators, the business community, residents, and others to achieve solutions to the critical issues affecting local governments.

In addition to his public service, Howard Chambers has made community service a priority. His involvement includes the Lakewood
